MENU

Where it all began...

My father, Michael, and I opened our first café together in 2003. We always dreamed of opening another, but sadly he passed away in 2009 — so Table 26 is named in his honour. His birthday was on the 26th, and we have a table permanently reserved for him — Table 26.

He taught me the value of human connection, kindness, and what it means to truly serve others. He was warm, sociable, and deeply loving — a man who lived for his family and made everyone feel like they belonged.

My promise is this: I want you to feel what we felt in his presence — to feel at home, and to leave just a little happier than when you arrived.
